FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fast Casual Restaurant Opens at The Forum

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, Dec. 28, 2015 – Fortunately for Peachtree Corners residents there is no shortage of good places to dine and now another has opened its doors. Newk’s Eatery, a Jackson, Mississippi-based restaurant officially opened its latest restaurant at The Forum on Dec. 23.

Founded in 2004, Newk’s is known for its made-from-scratch sandwiches, salads, soups and California-style pizzas. The company’s newest restaurant is located at 5185 Peachtree Parkway, Suite 105 adjacent to Ted’s Montana Grill.

“We’re so happy to welcome Newk’s to our city,” said Councilmember Lorri Christopher (Post 5) during the ribbon-cutting ceremony. “We are glad that they have chosen our city to open their newest restaurant, we know they will do well here.”

The new restaurant features an open-style kitchen and seats 124 with additional outdoor dining space available in the near future. The company, which offers franchises, has more than 80 locations throughout the South and Southeast.

The founders of the 11-year-old business, Don Newcomb, Debra Bryson and Chris Newcomb, had previously developed and launched another popular restaurant chain, McAlister’s Deli, before deciding to sell the business to create its new concept, Newk’s Eatery. According to the company’s website, many of the staple menu items come from the Newcomb family’s own recipes.

Menu items include toasted sandwiches, soups, pizzas, desserts and beverages including beer and wine. The restaurant also offers a to-go menu that features salads, sandwiches and desserts.

The Peachtree Corners restaurant is open daily from 11 a.m. – 10 p.m. (excluding major holidays) for lunch and dinner. Telephone: 470-545-4572. More information at www.newks.com.
