New Sign Company Joins Peachtree Corners Business Community

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, Feb. 16, 2016 – On Friday, city leaders welcomed business owners Jim and Stacey Feeney and their new sign company, Signs of Intelligence, to Peachtree Corners during a ribbon-cutting event.

Signs of Intelligence offers custom sign design for businesses including hanging signs for entrances or awnings. The company specializes in design, fabrication and installation of signs of a variety of size, shape, color and type.

Both Jim and Stacey Feeney have a strong business background. Jim Feeney spent over 30 years in marketing and sales. Stacey Feeney's background includes management, bookkeeping and human resources.

"We are pleased to welcome Signs of Intelligence to Peachtree Corners," said Mayor Mike Mason. "Our city has a thriving business community, I'm sure they will do well."

In addition to designing and creating outdoor signage, the company offers a variety of indoor signage, including window, wall murals and wall signs, tradeshow signs and vehicle wraps.

The company also provides logo and graphic design services as well as sign maintenance and repair services for existing and new customers.

The new business is located at 5875 Peachtree Industrial Boulevard, Suite 150 in Peachtree Corners. Visit the company's website, www.signsofintelligence.net for more information.
