FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pediatric Group Expands into Peachtree Corners

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, Feb. 24, 2016 – City leaders were on hand Thursday, Feb. 18, for a ribbon cutting ceremony to welcome Ivy League Pediatrics on the opening of its new Peachtree Corners office.

Ivy League Pediatrics, established in Lawrenceville in 2010, selected Peachtree Corners to expand its medical services. “The ribbon-cutting ceremony marks the launch of a new phase in our efforts to provide quality child care for Georgia children,” said Dr. Nneka Unachukwa, Ivy League Pediatrics’ medical director.

Dr. Shonte Henderson will provide patient care at the Peachtree Corners office. She is a graduate of Nova Southeastern University College of Osteopathic Medicine, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida and completed her residency at Children’s Hospital of New Jersey at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center, Newark, New Jersey. Dr. Henderson is a member of the American Academy of Pediatrics, American Osteopathic Association, and the National Medical Association.

“We are delighted to welcome Ivy League Pediatrics to Peachtree Corners,” said Mayor Mike Mason. “As our city continues to grow and attract families with young children, I am sure the new pediatric office will serve our community well.”

Ivy League Pediatrics office is located at 6385 Spalding Drive, Suite A; website: www.ivyleaguepediatrics.com; telephone: 678-407-4489. The office is open 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday and closed on Wednesdays and weekends.
