Mayor Set to Deliver 2016 'State of the City' Address July 15

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, July 14, 2016 – Mayor Mike Mason will deliver his fourth State-of-the-City address on Friday, July 15 at a breakfast meeting at the Hilton Hotel in Peachtree Corners. The event is presented by the Peachtree Corners Business Association.

The mayor is expected to point to a number of success in the city's first four years as Gwinnett County's newest city – and highlight its vision for the future.

On the mayor's list will be several key initiatives including the city's efforts to revitalize the Holcomb Bridge Road corridor and the newly launched Comprehensive Transportation Plan which the city will use to guide transportation improvements and investments over the next 20 years.

He will also provide an update on the Town Center and the plans for the Innovation Hub in Technology Park. Expect him to also provide an update on the new business incubator which is scheduled to open later this year and the plans for a multi-use trail plan. The 11-mile trail system will crisscross through the city's business parks, retail centers and residential communities.

Reservations are required to attend the State of the City address. Visit the Peachtree Corners Business Association's website to reserve a seat. The event hours are 7:30 – 9:00 a.m., the cost is $30 and includes breakfast. The Hilton is located at 5993 Peachtree Industrial Boulevard in Peachtree Corners.

The mayor will deliver his State of the City address again on Monday, July 18, from 7:00 – 8:30 p.m. at Christ the King Lutheran Church. This is a United Peachtree Corners Civic Association-sponsored event. Reservations are not required, the event is free.
