New Specialty Pet Store Celebrates Opening with Ribbon Cutting

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, June 8, 2016 – Life for your favorite four-legged friend has just gotten a little better. Pooch N Paws Pet Boutique & Bakery, a specialty pet store and grooming spa has just opened at The Forum.

Mayor Mike Mason and Councilmember Weare Gratwick (Post 6) were on hand for a ribbon cutting ceremony on Friday, June 3, to welcome the store's owners, Bob and Starla Pellegrino to the Peachtree Corners community. Pooch N Paws, located next door to Trader Joe's, specializes in holistic dog and cat food as well as fresh bakery dog treats.

The new retail store offers an array of pet accessories including collars, leashes, beds, bowls, carriers, strollers and apparel. Full service grooming is also available.

"It's a pleasure to welcome Pooch N Paws to our city," said Mayor Mike Mason. "With so many pet owners in Peachtree Corners, I'm sure their store will be very popular."

This is a second store for the Pellegrinos, they opened their first Pooch N Paws in 2010 in Suwanee. "We're delighted to be here," said Starla Pellegrino. "We had been looking for a location at The Forum for some time and are so happy to finally open in Peachtree Corners."

Pooch N Paws at The Forum is located at 5185 Peachtree Parkway, Suite 102, Peachtree Corners GA, 30092, visit www.poochnpaws.com for more information.
