Peachtree Corners Restaurant Owner Opens Second Location in City

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, March 3, 2016 – Gwinnett’s newest city has just added another restaurant to its ever-expanding array of eateries – Hog & Ale Smokehouse located in the Peachtree Parkway Plaza shopping center.

City leaders were on hand Feb. 29, 2016 to celebrate the new barbecue restaurant which is owned and operated by Peachtree Corners resident Jason Deems, who also opened Johnny’s Pizza located on Peachtree Parkway several years ago.

Deems’ new restaurant serves up a variety of pulled pork and chicken dishes, sandwiches, smoked chicken wings, an Angus beef brisket, St. Louis styled ribs and other barbecue favorites. The menu also includes hamburgers, patty melts and a slaw dog, salads and other items.

“The Brisket Patty Melt and Hee Haw Slaw Dog are among the best sellers,” said Deems who has been in the restaurant business for over 10 years. Hog & Ale also has a full bar, a number of big screen televisions surround the dining and bar area, and booth and table seating.

“It’s always welcome news when we hear a successful business owner decides to expand his operation in the city,” said Mayor Mike Mason. “We wish Jason much success in the opening of his new barbecue restaurant.

Hog & Ale Smokehouse is located at 5450 Peachtree Parkway, store hours are 11 a.m. – 9 p.m. Sundays through Wednesdays and 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Thursdays through Saturdays; telephone, 678-585-1514.
