Councilmember Resigns to Run for State Representative *City Announces Qualifying Dates for Vacated Councilmember Seat

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, March 17, 2016 – Councilmember Jay Lowe (Post 2) who officially resigned his seat on the city council last week to run as State Representative (Dist. 95), was recognized at Tuesday’s City Council meeting for his service to the city.

“Jay has served on the city’s inaugural city council for over four years,” said Mayor Mike Mason. “We have valued his leadership, insight and good humor that he brought to the council. We are certainly sorry to lose him but wish him well as he seeks a seat in the Georgia House of Representatives.”

With the Post 2 seat now vacant, the city announced Tuesday night that it would hold a Special Municipal Election on May 24. The qualifying dates for the Post 2 seat are Monday, March, 28 – Tuesday, March 29 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and Wednesday, March 30 from 9 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The qualifying fee for is $240.00 which is 3 percent of the total gross councilmember salary. Qualifying will be conducted in the City Clerk’s office at Peachtree Corners City Hall.

The Special Election will be held at Peachtree Corners City Hall from 7 a.m. – 7 p.m. Residents who have not registered in the city’s municipal election may register on or before 5 p.m., April 26, 2016. Registration forms are available in the office of the City Clerk.
