Mayor Mason Set to Deliver 'State of City' Address Monday

PEACHTREECORNERS, Ga. – Mayor Mike Mason will have a full day on Monday, July 21 as he is scheduled to deliver his second State of the City address at three locations throughout the day.

The City of Peachtree Corners mayor will begin the day by delivering his State of the City address at the Atlanta Marriott in Peachtree Corners at a breakfast meeting presented by the Peachtree Corners Business Association at 7:30 a.m. Guests are required to pre-register through the Peachtree Corners Business Association's website.

Then he will be speaking at noon before Peachtree Corners Rotary Club members at the organization's meeting site, the Carlyle House located in Norcross.

At 7:30 p.m. the mayor will deliver his message at a United Peachtree Corners Civic Association (UPCCA) sponsored event at Christ the King Lutheran Church in Peachtree Corners. The evening event is open to the community.

Mason can be expected to point to a number of successes the city has accomplished in its first 24 months and to talk about the new town center and other plans for the city's future.
