New Movie Theater Opens in Peachtree Corners

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, Nov. 20, 2015 – After the city’s only movie theater closed in the Peachtree Market Place shopping center nearly a year ago, residents have had to travel out of the city to see a movie. But that all ended on Thursday when NCG Cinema, a Michigan-based family owned business opened its doors.

NCG Cinema is one of the new tenants in the shopping center located on Peachtree Parkway and Holcomb Bridge Road that’s currently undergoing major renovations. The old theater space underwent a complete remodel and the theater officially opened on Nov. 19. The Peachtree Corners location offers eight theaters, comfortable reclining seating, a spacious lobby and a party room for private celebrations.

“We’re pleased to welcome NCG Cinema to Peachtree Corners,” said Councilmember Weare Gratwick (Post 6), who was on hand to help celebrate the grand opening. “The new theater is a much-appreciated addition to our community.”

And for movie goers who think popcorn, candy and a soft drink go hand in hand while watching the latest film, the free refills NCG offers might be one of the best features. For one set price, you can get your fill at the concession stand. The theater offers first run movies; ticket prices are $8 for adults and $6 for children and seniors (55 and over).

Founded in 1985, Neighborhood Cinema Group, branded as NCG Cinemas, operates 18 locations in seven states.
