Mammoth Car Wash Expands into Peachtree Corners

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, August 25, 2016 – With two established locations in nearby Alpharetta, Mammoth Hand Car Wash Detail Salon has moved into Gwinnett County. Its newest venue on the corner of Holcomb Bridge Road and Spalding Drive opened its doors this past May.

Owners Ted Marcus and his son Andrew opened up the new business in an existing car wash and detailing business. Then they took on the task of totally remodeling the 3,200 square-foot space, which now boasts a redesigned exterior with stacked stone canopy, a newly remodeled interior, updated detail station and repaved parking lot with fresh landscaping.

“We’re happy to welcome Mammoth to the business community,” said Mayor Mike Mason during a recent ribbon-cutting event. “They’ve done a remarkable job in remodeling the building. I’m sure they will do very well in Peachtree Corners.”

The business offers a variety of services including hand washing packages and detailing packages. The hand wash services for cars range in price from $19.95 to $39.95. There is an additional charge for larger vehicles.

And for automobile aficionados, Mammoth offers a number of detail packages that include everything from engine cleaning and ultra-shining all hoses, treating and conditioning leather and vinyl to shampooing headliner and high speed compounding and polish. More detail and pricing is available on Mammoth’s website.

Mammoth is located at 4050 Holcomb Bridge Road, Peachtree Corners, GA 30092; hours of operation: Mon-Sat, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., Sunday, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; telephone, 678-948-5011.
