CityGate Church Relocates to Peachtree Corners

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, Feb. 24, 2017 – It was standing room only on Friday evening when CityGate Atlanta celebrated the official opening of its new church location in Peachtree Corners with a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

Formerly located in nearby Chamblee, the church, led by Jacquie Tyre, put down permanent roots in former office space on Medlock Bridge Road in the Medlock Oaks Office Park.

The 15,000 square-foot space houses a worship center, multi-purpose fellowship space, a prayer room and library, ministry rooms for prayer counseling, children’s classrooms, resource center for books, CDs and gift items, administrative offices, space for production – plus room to expand.

“I am honored to welcome CityGate to Peachtree Corners,” said Councilmember Phil Sadd (Post 1), just before the red ribbon was cut to recognize the official opening of the new facility. “CityGate considered multiple cities during its re-location process. We are excited the church selected Peachtree Corners as its new location and look forward to them being part of our community.”

Mrs. Tyre has been involved in ministry leadership for over 20 years. Assisting her is an eight-person leadership team: Dave and Terri Clark, Rick and Teresa Heath, Sondra Lemser, Beverly Roach and Victor and Mindy Ruiz.

CityGate Church is located at 3100 Medlock Bridge Road, Suite 250, in Peachtree Corners, 30071. Services are held Sunday at 5 p.m. and Tuesday nights at 7 p.m. For directions and contact information, visit the church’s website.
