FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

City's New Town Green Alive with Concerts, Family Events

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, May 24, 2019 – City leaders and the entire Peachtree Corners community celebrated the grand opening of its new Town Center on April 27, 2019. With the opening of the Town Center, and the 2-acre Town Green, the community may now enjoy a slate of activities on the Town Green including live concerts, lawn games, yoga classes and more.

Events are free to the public and include Live on the Green concerts, Flicks on the Green, Family Field Day, Yoga on the Green, along with monthly live concerts featuring marque bands including Sister Hazel, Queen Nation and Departure.

Since the grand opening, the community has embraced the new venue in the short time it has opened.

“The live evening concerts, the movies and the variety of games that the entire family can enjoy have been very well received,” said Mayor Mason. “Creating a gathering place for the community was a top priority when we began to plan the Town Center six years ago. We are delighted that the community is enjoying this new venue.”

A complete calendar listing of upcoming free events is located on the city's website, www.peachtreecornersga.gov, look for the “City Calendar” posted in the middle of the homepage for details. Below are highlights and dates of upcoming June events:
