Peachtree Corners – Get Ready for Summer

Check out the city's 2020 outdoor summer concert lineup

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, March 2, 2020 – The city's summer concert series at the Town Center is back for its second year. The lineup for this year's Big Concert series takes place again on Town Green's outdoor stage. The first concert is set for May 30 and the series wraps up on September 26.

The first show feature Fastball, an American rock band that formed in Austin, Texas in 1995. The Grammy-nominated band encompasses such memorable songs as Make Your Mamma Proud, All the Pain Money Can Buy, Little White Lies and Step Into Light.

Up next on June 27, On the Border takes the stage. The ultimate Eagles Tribute band from Charlotte, N.C. continues to earn critical acclaim for their precise attention to replicating the details of the Eagles music.

Next in the summer series is Electric Avenue on July 25. The 80s pop tribute band delivers spot-on renditions of Tears for Fears, Wham? Duran Duran, Simple Minds, Kenny Loggins, Prince, David Bowie and more.

On August 29, Texas Flood, a premier blues band, takes the stage. pays tribute to the legends as well as the future of the blues through their own music and style.

The 2020 season caps with Drivin N Cryin, an Atlanta-based folk-rock act. In October 1985 the band played their first show at Atlanta's famed 688 Club. Now 35 years later, founding members Kevin Kenney and Tim Nielsen are enjoying a milestone anniversary.

Food vendors are a staple of the summer concerts. Expect a variety of food vendors with a wide selection of offerings suitable for every palate.
