PUBLIC COMMENT: Mayor Mason called for any public comment. No public comments made.

REPORTS and PRESENTATIONS: Community Development Director Diana Wheeler reviewed what transpired last week within Community Development and reported she has met with various neighborhood groups. She has been working to make sure upcoming meetings are advertised and the boards are constituted, both Planning Commission and Zoning Board of Appeals will have an organizational/training meeting scheduled for September 11th at 7:00pm. She presented the council with workbooks that will be reviewed at this organizational meeting. In addition, Ms. Wheeler reviewed a graph which highlights the tight timeline for the development of the city's Comprehensive Plan and her intentions to submit an RFP for these services.

Diana Wheeler introduced Lynnette Howard who provided information on the criteria and process for the selection of recommendations for appointments to the City of Peachtree Corners Planning Commission and Zoning Board of Appeals. Ms. Howard explained there were 31 applicants, there was a diversity of experience within the applicants and all were interviewed, each one was interested in participating and being involved with the city. Ms. Howard provided an overview of each person recommended for these boards. Mr. Kachmar reported that having 31 individuals of this caliber was impressive; the council may want to appoint the first ten and appoint one or two alternates. In addition, he suggested the council appoint a temporary chair for each commission (possibly six months) as the timeframe is narrow. Mr. Kachmar reviewed his thoughts on the citizens under consideration and explained all the candidates would have the ability to say no if necessary. He did recommend the council develop their ethics policy on how they want to conduct their meetings, their interactions and relationships with the board members and how to conduct them ethically. In closure, Ms. Howard reviewed the alternates.

There was clarification from Ms. Alexander and Diana Wheeler the training will be conducted on September 11th. Acting Clerk Jones announced the upcoming meetings.
