FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Health Care Staffing Provider, Soliant, Relocates Headquarters to Peachtree Corners

The company announced the move will bring 400 new jobs to the city.

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, Aug. 21, 2020 – Today, Soliant, a health care and education staffing company announced it is relocating its headquarters to Peachtree Corners. Founded in 1991, Soliant provides medical staff to various staff health facilities throughout the United. Its headquarters are currently located in Tucker, Georgia.

The health care staffing company will relocate its national headquarters to a 58,000 square-foot space in the former Career Builder building in Technology Park Atlanta. The move brings 400 new jobs to Peachtree Corners.

“Central to our mission at Soliant are our values specific to innovation and curiosity,” stated Soliant’s CEO David Alexander, in the company’s press release announcing its move to Peachtree Corners. “The new headquarters will put us in close proximity to progressive tech resources while our space itself is designed to promote employee collaboration, engagement and culture.”

Soliant signed a 10-year lease for its new location at 5550 Peachtree Parkway, in Peachtree Corners. The new offices will provide team members with a larger and more flexible space designed to promote employee health and well-being. The new location features amenities that include a rooftop terrace with outdoor kitchen, state-of-the-art gym with full locker rooms and showers, an outdoor basketball court, sand volleyball court, 5G Wi-Fi, and access to the city’s multi-use trails and its new Town Center featuring retail shops, dine-in theater and over 15 restaurants.

“Our city is pleased to welcome Soliant as a new member of the Peachtree Corners business community,” said Mayor Mike Mason. “The city’s Technology Park is considered the metro area’s business hub for forward-looking businesses seeking to collaborate with like-minded industries. We are confident Soliant's leaders and its 400 employees will enjoy our city and its many amenities."

The company is currently renovating its new space and moving its employees in phases; it expects to complete the move to its new headquarters in December.
