Gwinnett Chamber of Commerce taps Peachtree Corners Mayor to Serve on Board of Directors

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, Oct. 7, 2020 -- Mayor Mike Mason has been selected as a Chairman's appointee to serve as a member of its Board of Directors for a one-year term beginning January 2021. Board members provide leadership and are responsible for directing and upholding the mission and goals of the Gwinnett Chamber and Partnership Gwinnett.

"Your commitment as a member of the Board enhances the ability of the Chamber to continue its high-quality services and programs that assist in promoting and sustaining a pro-business environment in Gwinnett," said Gwinnett Chamber of Commerce Chair Elect Doug Jenkins.

Board members act as leading contributors to the community and provide direction to assist in preparing for the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead for the county.

"It is an honor to have been selected to serve as a member of this prestigious board," said Mayor Mason. "The Gwinnett Chamber of Commerce has always played a key role in the development of our great county. Our greatest strength is our membership and together we will continue to focus on ensuring Gwinnett County remains a strong economic leader."

Mason has lived in Peachtree Corners for over 30 years and was elected as the city's first Mayor in March 2012. He holds an MBA in Finance from the University of Evansville and a B.S. In Accounting from the University of Southern Indiana. During his career he has served as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for several companies. He is currently the owner of Mason CFO Advisory.

A U.S. Navy veteran, Mason is a native of Sandersville, GA. He and his wife, Debbie, moved to Peachtree Corners in 1985 where they raised their two sons.
